CSR to play mandatory role in UAE private sector

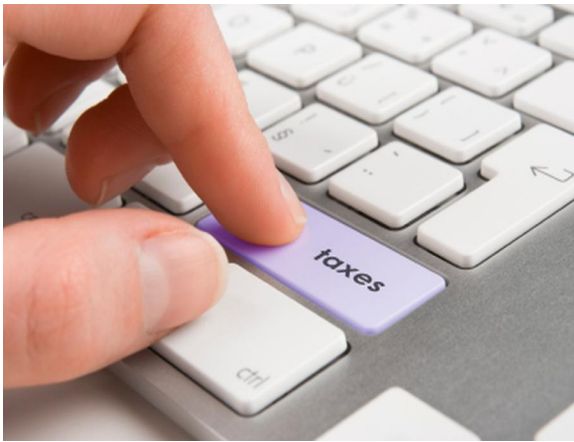

13 June 2017

Lending an axiomatic reality its highest purpose is the decision by the UAE Ministry of Economy to make Corporate Social Responsibility an integral aspect of the private sector's identity. Beyond the postulations on the importance of CSR by political sociologists, in today's increasingly binary world of positives and negatives, it is an uncompromising need to have societal growth as an inclusive phenomenon.

Expat Tax: How it will impact Saudi

private sector

13 June 2017

It is not clear, however, who will shoulder the new levy, although some reports have indicated that foreign workers could end up having to pay for it, not their employers. "I suppose in most cases it will be borne by expats," M.R. Raghu, executive vice president for Kuwait Financial Centre "Markaz", told Gulf News.

Saudi Arabia plans new free economic zones

13 June 2017

JEDDAH — A government committee is studying a proposal to close down Al-Jowharah Stadium and King Faisal Specialist Hospital north of Jeddah in order to open a free economic zone.

"The Ministry of Finance is skeptical about the decision of buying both properties but the Public Investment Fund (PIF) intends to buy the hospital, the stadium and the residential area near the stadium," said a source.
